

Formation of OHS committee

This course is for plant managers, union officials, supervising personnel, workers and OHS committee members.

Type of session

Information session adapted to the specific requirements of participants or companies.

Objective

Provide information on legal provisions relating to the formation of occupational health and safety committees (OHSC).

Content

Module 1

- What are the true costs of work-related accidents ?
- Why prevention ?
- What are the conditions of success in prevention ?
- Why set up an OHS committee ?

Module 2

- What is the mandate of OHS committees ?
- Who sits on OHS committees ?
- How are OHS committees structured ?

Module 3

- How do OHSC meetings work ?
- How are problems solved ?
- What follow-up is given to OHSC projects ?

Duration

Three 4-hour modules, or according to specific content.

Number of participants

20 people maximum.