

Task safety assessment

This course is for workers occupying the positions under assessment, their supervising personnel and OHS committee members.

Type of session

Information session.

Objective

Show how to identify, analyze and eliminate or control hazards associated with tasks performed at the work place.

Content

- Identification procedures
 - Making a plan of the premises
 - Identifying work stations
 - Identifying tasks
 - Designing a code for workshops, positions and tasks
- Implementation procedures
 - Selecting a position
 - Dividing the position into tasks
 - Identifying hazards for every task
 - Defining measures to eliminate or control hazards

Duration

Seven hours.

Number of participants

10 people maximum.